By car

By tram

Exit the Bremen central station in direction south (town center). Taxi and tram are leaving directly in front of the central station. You take the tram no. 6 in direction “Universität” and exit at the terminus “Universität-Nord”. From here you will have to walk 5 minutes. So keep following the rails till the turning radius and turn right into the “Robert-Hooke-Straße”. On the left street side is the main building of the DFKI.

By plane

The tram goes directly from the airport to the University of Bremen. Exit at the terminus “Universität-Nord”. From here you will have to walk 5 minutes. Keep following the rails till the turning radius and turn right into the “Robert-Hooke-Straße”. On the left street side is the main building of the DFKI. You can also take a taxi to the University of Bremen.
